

Your “Big Why” Income and Purpose Planner

Complete the following questions to help you nail down what you really want out of life. Think about how piano teaching and all your other priorities fit into the big picture for your life.

What would you like your income to be? _____

Why? What would you do with this income? _____

If you had a more time available during your week, what would you do? _____

Why? How do these activities enhance your life? (ex. strengthening family and/or friendships, making you healthier, reducing stress, pursuing a hobby) _____

Now that you’ve completed this income and purpose planner, take a few days to think about your “Big Why” and the importance of working towards it now. Don’t let years pass by before you are able to live the life you want! In a couple of days I’ll send you help for taking the first step towards the new life you’ve planned.